NOTICE

Counsel are reminded that the policy of this court is that lawyers who represent clients in matrimonial dissolution actions have a special responsibility for full and fair disclosure (to each other and the court) for a searching dialogue about all of the facts that materially affect the client's rights and interests. See Mitchell v. Mitchell, 194 Conn. 312, 322 (1984).

All counsel and pro se parties are to report to the Norwich Judicial District Courthouse, One Courthouse Square, Norwich.

Cases must proceed on this date or they will be nonsuited or dismissed. THERE WILL BE NO OFF MARKINGS.

Counsel and pro se parties shall present:

1. Appraisals for all real estate and/or a stipulation as to value.
2. Relevant federal income tax returns for the past 3 years.
3. Current statements of all retirement benefits.
4. Current financial affidavits.
5. Written proposed orders.
6. Completed health forms, custody affidavits, child support guideline worksheets, and advisement of rights.

NOTICE (continued from Column 1)

The Court REQUIRES compliance with Practice Book Rule 463. In cases where a party is nonappearing, a military affidavit is required.

Commencing 10-22-92, a member of the New London County Bar Association will be available between 10:00-11:00 a.m. on the morning of this list to indicate whether or not a pro se party has the required paperwork. THEY WILL NOT COMMENT AS TO THE LEGAL SUFFICIENCY OF THE PAPERWORK.

PARENTING EDUCATION PROGRAMS—§ 46b-69b. The court must order any person in certain types of family cases, except restraining orders, in which a minor child is involved to attend a Parenting Education Program. Brochures, a list of service providers and a form, which is to be completed before the hearing, are available at the Clerk's Office.

New federal requirements regarding wage withholding for child support in Non-IV-D family cases are now in effect. Information and forms are available at all Judicial District Clerks' Offices.
